There will be no excursion to Cincinnati next Sunday, the rail road company being short of equipment.

The crop of blackberries is not up to what was expected, and their is great disappointment among the housekeepers.

Mr J B Mount has been appointed chairman of the Garrard County Democratic Committee to serve during 1907. The appointment was made by the State Central Committee.

James Hatcher, proprietor of the Danville stage line, has had a telephone installed in his residence, for convenience of patrons. All orders promptly answered.

Exchange Saturday.

The ladies of the Baptist church will have an exchange in the Stormes' room, on Danville street, next Saturday afternoon. They will appreciate your patronage.

Faulconer Property Sold.

The Faulconer property was sold this week to Mrs Isaac Hamilton, who will take possession immediately. Mrs Faulconer will soon leave to spend some time with her children, and she preferred selling to renting the place.

Circuit Court.

Circuit court, better known as "big court," will convene two weeks from next Monday, and tomorrow, Friday, is the last day in which suits for this term may be filed. There are several criminal cases on the docket, and the civil business promises to be better than for some time past.

Big Mortgage Filed.

The Central Kentucky Traction Co., which recently bought the property of the Bluegrass Traction Co., this week filed a mortgage at Frankfort for four million dollars in favor of a Philadelphia Trust Co. The mortgage states that the funds are to be used to build connecting lines from Lexington to other named cities including Lancaster.

Church Dedication At Paint Lick.

The Christian Church at Paint Lick, which has been recently built, will be dedicated the first Sunday in September. Elder J H Macneill, of Winchester, will preach the dedicatory sermon. Everybody invited to come and bring a basket of dinner along. Elder J M Rash, of Winchester, the pastor, will begin a series of meetings on Saturday night before the fourth Sunday in this month, and will continue a few days after the dedication.

The report that a drunken man attempted to kill Matt Cohen at the Lancaster fair, fired his pistol on the grounds and kicked up other devilment is a fake. No disorder of any kind occurred on the fair grounds or in Lancaster during the fair.

A Good Ad.

Rev A S Phelps, pastor of the M E church at Plainville, Wis., runs a standing "ad" in the local paper calling attention in display type to the goods he handles. It read as follows: 'Eternal Life Assurance Company, Home Office, Heavenly City, New Jerusalem, President, the Lord Jesus, Capital, God's everlasting love. The firm assures you peace and joy here and in the next world a life of everlasting blessedness. No certificate of health necessary.'

Lancaster Boy Honored.

His many Lancaster friends are glad to learn that Mr Bert A Spencer, formerly of Lancaster, is meeting with so much success in Louisville. He is the leading member of the Spencer Hat Co, the most prominent retail dealers in the Falls City, and is rapidly moving toward the shady side of Easy Street. He was appointed by Mayor Bingham as a member of the board of City Councilmen in the recent clean sweep made, which tells of the high standing he enjoys with the public men. The Record congratulates Mr Spencer on his success.

The Colored Fair.

The greatest event among the colored people in this section is the Lancaster Colored Fair, and they look forward with the greatest interest to the dates. The exhibition began this, Thursday, morning and will continue through Saturday. The officers and stockholders consist of the very best colored citizens in the town and county, and the affairs of the organization are conducted on strictly business principles. The music is being furnished by Prof Wilson's band, of Lexington, and is the best the association has ever had. The rings will be well filled, and the show of stock good. Many white people will attend, as they should, and thus help these honorable colored citizens in their enterprise.

Success to Tobacco Growers.

Tobacco growers generally are to be congratulated upon the unanimity with which the farmers of Garrard County have evinced their purpose of joining the Society of Equity and pooling their crops in that organization. The manipulation by the gamblers of the wheat market the past few weeks from $1.00 down to .75 cents, barely covering cost of production, shows how completely the farmers are at the mercy of the Trusts in such matters. Fortunately, in the case of tobacco however, where the limited area of its culture enables its growers to combine for their mutual defense and protection, they, by acting wisely, can not only sustain prices, but could absolutely bring the Trust to its knees, as it simply must have their crops or go entirely out of business. Lifting the price from 5 cts to 15 cts is none too much under all the circumstances.

Will Be Warm.

The question of the selection of a City Council, is being discussed and growing quite warm. The present board will stand for re election, and a new ticket will be placed in the field. The gentlemen composing new ticket are H T Logan for mayor; councilmen Banks Hudson, Alex Walker, Jas W Smith, J B Mount, Jas Hill and W B Burton. We heard of still another ticket, but the entire list was not given us. The old board is composed of Jno M Duncan, mayor, councilmen J E Stormes, Sam G Haselden, C D Powell, S C Denny, Jas B Conn and Thomas Austin. All the gentlemen named are good men, and we believe will do their duty, fully. As the readers of The Record know, this paper is for the enforcement of the law, to the letter, and all it asks is a continuation of the peace and quietude the people now enjoy. We believe this will be, no matter what selection is made from the fourteen men named in this article. As it is not compulsory to vote either ticket "straight," there will doubtless be a considerable lot of scratching done.

Meeting Closed.

The protracted meeting, which has been conducted by Rev Henry Faulconer, for the past three weeks, closed Sunday night, with services in the Park. Mr Faulconer's work was directed mostly to the backslider, or church members, but much good was also done in awakening those outside the church and his efforts will have a good, and, we believe, a lasting effect on the entire community. Rev C C Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, rendered valuable assistance to Mr Faulconer in conducting the services, while the sweet singing of Mrs Juliet Rogers was greatly enjoyed and appreciated. The idea of meeting in the little park proved a splendid one, as it was far more comfortable and the services drew people who never darkened a church door. Mr Faulconer will leave in a few days to resume his work in and around Philadelphia, where all his time is consumed. He was given this three-weeks' vacation, but said he had his heart so set on the welfare of this, his home town, he was willing to lay aside the brief rest granted him and tell his people the sweet message of Jesus Christ.

Bank Elects Officers.

At a meeting of the directors of the Citizens National Bank, held Monday, Mr Joel J Walker was elected president, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lewis Y Leavell. Squire J S Johnson was chosen vice president, the place filled by Mr Walker. John A Sanders was elected a director to fill vacancy caused by death of Mr Leavell. These are all men of good business qualification and sound judgment, which insures the continuation of the splendid success with which this bank is meeting.

Honor Worthily Placed.

Chairman Louis McQuowan, of the Democratic State Central Committee, having announced that he would be absent from home for several months, the committee unanimously elected the Hon Jerry A Sullivan, of Richmond, as chairman pro tem to serve during the time. This means that the clever Richmond gentleman will be in charge during the present campaign. A more conscientious, honest man could not have been found, and his legion of friends and admirers are delighted with the action of the committee.

Matt Cohen's Good Luck.

Matt Cohen has duplicated by victory at Lancaster by winning the first, second and third prizes in the five gaited sweep stakes class at the Boyle county fair at Danville, which are the only cases on record where the same man won all three of the prizes. Cohen won the first award with Star McDonaid, the second with Autowin, the third with Winsome. The stake of $100 for this event went to Cohen. Not only did Cohen accomplish this feat, but he won thirteen blue ties out of fourteen shows.

Big Sum For Graded School.

In the distribution of his large estate, the late Lewis Y Leavell made a very substantial gift to the Lancaster Graded Schools. After giving thirty thousand dollars to certain relatives, he directs that the residue of his estate, after payment of expenses, be given to the Lancaster Graded Schools. While it is impossible to tell the amount until the will is probated and the executor inspects the estate, yet it can be safely estimated that the Schools will receive between forty five and fifty thousand dollars. The inheritance tax must be deducted, but even with this, we have it pretty straight that the amount will reach the above figures. He names Mr Lewis L Walker as executor. As stated above, nothing definite can be published until after the will is admitted to probate, but as Mr Leavell was a man of fine judgement, it's a safe prediction that the will provides against the indiscriminate use of the funds left to the institution, and fixes it so that it will be used to the best advantage. The will was made five years ago.

Paste This In Your Hat.

Indications point to a spirited fight in the selection of a City Council at the election this Fall, a new board to be placed in the field against the present one. As we have always done, The Record will publish communications on the subject, but under no circumstances unless the article is paid at five cents a line and the writer's full name SIGNED thereto. We have had enough experience to learn that newspaper controversies never end until they have grown very bitter, and that no good results therefrom, also that it is very bad policy for an editor to allow some fellow to hide behind a nom de plume and use his printing press for breastworks. If you have views, don't be afraid to print them and sign your name thereto. This paper has always done and said everything in its power for the betterment and upbuilding of Lancaster and Garrard county, but when it comes to stirring up strife among our people, please hitch us to hay out in the suburbs. Please remember, we must have pay for such communications to simply air your own personal views, and that, too, in advance.

Why It Helped.

When the decision to hold religious services in the little park was reached, some doubted the advisability thereof, but we have heard so many expressions as to the good results, The Record tells thereof for the benefit of other towns that have not yet tried it. The simple truth of the matter is, that people become so accustomed to going to a church that they simply sit there like so many knots on a log and go through the service in a cut and dried manner, never remembering the text further than the front door. When a meeting is held out under the trees, where a fellow can stretch out his legs, work on a "chaw" of home-made, or even get out in the edge of the crowd and hit his old corn-cob pipe a few hicks, then it is that that man is going to listen, and think about it, too. At the regular Sunday-morning services in the churches, everybody is dressed in his best clothes, the men with standing collars cutting the hide from their chins and the women with corset laces drawn as tight as fiddle strings, and as a matter of course, there's no pleasure in being there. The Record's advice to evangelists, and other ministers, too, is to get out in a pleasant place to hold services and their words of comfort and warning will have a more far-reaching and telling effect.

WORK BEGINS NEXT WEEK.

Contract Has Been Awarded. Work on New Hotel to be Pushed. To be Ready by December 6th.

Plans for a new hotel were accepted Tuesday and contract awarded to Lewis & Glanz, of Louisville. Work will begin early next week, the contract stipulating that the building is to be turned over to the owners on Dec 6th. The contractors are among the best in the state, and good work is assured. They were required to give good bond to carry out the contract. The building will be three stories, or with basement really four stories, as the latter will be utilized for sample rooms, barber shop, bakery and other conveniences. The entire house will be heated by steam, with electric lights and running water in each of the twenty-three rooms. The dining rooms will be on the first floor. The restaurant dining room will be connected with that of the main one by folding doors so the two may be thrown into one. The plan is a very pretty one, and we will publish picture of the building as soon as one can be obtained.

Improvements At Graded School.

The trustees have just completed some much-needed repairs on the buildings and grounds at the Graded School, and the entire property is now in better shape than it has ever been. Every room has been papered and repainted, the furnaces put in good shape and the fences all put in thorough repair. It was regretted that the old Dunlap summer house had to be removed, as it was quite a landmark, but the woodwork had become rotten and the entire structure so weakened that it was not advisable to attempt to preserve it. When the bell rings in September, the pupils will find the best equipped and most comfortable school buildings in the state.

I am taking orders for all leading magazines. Will appreciate your order. Mrs Dolly Brown, at Joseph's store.

STATE FAIR CATALOGUE READY!

Handsomely Illustrated Book Tells of Premiums, Amusements, Enterprises, Music, etc.

The regular edition of the Kentucky State Fair catalogue, printed in three colors and handsomely illustrated, came from the press this week and thousands of copies are being mailed daily from the headquarters of the Fair at Louisville. The preliminary list for the State Fair was issued a month ago. It covered eighty odd pages. The regular catalogue has 152 pages. The classifications in all departments are complete, together with the speed program and an announcement of the big amusement enterprises of the Fair. There are also eight fine half tone views of the new grounds and buildings recently purchased by the State Board of Agriculture as a permanent location for the State Fair. One page is devoted to a description of the balloon race during the Fair, with three views of the balloons in the air. The captive balloon is shown in a large half tone. There is a page cut of Captain Knabenshue in the passenger carrying airship which is to make daily flights and exhibitions at the State Fair, Sept 16-21. This is to be Captain Knabenshue's only appearance in Kentucky or Southern Indiana. His passenger-carrying airship will only make six appearances in America this year. Sectional views of the airship are printed for the first time, in the State Fair catalogue. The pages are given to points of interest in and around Louisville, while there is some valuable information on the railroad depot and ticket offices, together with the steamboat lines. One of the most attractive views in the book is an attractive zinc etching of the eruption of Vesuvius, which is to be shown nightly during the State Fair week, together with Pain's famous fireworks Natiello and his all-star band from the "Land of Music," which is to give three concerts daily during the State Fair occupies two pages in half tone. An entry blank accompanies each catalogue, also a souvenir post card in seven colors, which the recipient is asked to mail to some friend.

Anyone desiring a catalogue will be sent one by applying to the Secretary, R E Hughes, at Louisville.

According to English papers working girls, including domestic servants, factory and shop girls and clerks, have taken to smoking cigarettes and are becoming slaves to the habit. Much alarm is expressed on the ground that as working girls can not afford to buy the best cigarettes as the women of the upper classes do, their vitality is likely to be dangerously impaired by their indulgence. Here is an opportunity for the philanthropist. Let them put good cigarettes within the reach of the humblest "slaver!"

Humor is not appreciated in Iowa. One of its Populist citizens in an impulsive moment had his whiskers shaved off. Impressed by the change in his appearance, he went home and pretended that he was a tramp seeking cold visuals. The disguise worked so well that when he playfully put his arms around his wife she had him arrested, and he put in the rest of the day proving his identity. Whiskers are serious affairs in Iowa.

If Mrs. Stokes, who is to edit the lovers' correspondence column in a New York Yiddish paper, will only give the anxious inquirers a sure recipe for marrying rich, New York papers printed in English will soon be seeking her services at any salary she will name. Such a feature would run any circulation in the millions.

The newest ocean steamship for service between New York and Liverpool has as a part of its luxurious equipment two "regal suites" intended to meet the demand of fastidious travelers who "have the price." This last, it may be remarked as a matter of interest to those who are saving up for a trip to Europe, is $2,000 for each suite.

A Denver paper asks the public to believe that a married couple in the Colorado city have lived together sixty years without either saying a cross word to the other. The story may be true, but what a deadly dull life they must have lived!

An Iowa police judge has probably inaugurated a cause celebre by fining a parrot for profane swearing. This has always been understood to be one of the inalienable rights of the parrot since the time it acted as first mate on the ark.

Ohio farmers have solved the labor problem. They are offering beer in addition to wages to harvest hands and the hoboos have rallied to the support of agriculture with practical unanimity.

Georgia's prohibition bill has passed the legislature, and the Georgians will soon be able to united with the Carolinians in reflection on the time between drinks.

After its recent severe prostration the heated term feels able to sit up again and partake of a little nourishment.

The report that the hot biscuit is passing causes an involuntary stretching of the hand to get one.

In Memoriam.

On Friday, July 19, at twilight the Death Angel entered a happy home, and took from it the beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Asa Daly. Deceased was Miss Mattie Parks, she was born and reared in Garrard county. Mrs. Daly had been in bad health for some time, but to this devoted wife, mother and sister, death had no sting and the dark portals of the grave no terror, for quite early in life she united with the forks of Dix River Baptist church and had always been a faithful follower of her Lord. She leaves a husband, three daughters, two sons, four brothers, three sisters and other relatives to mourn the loss of a woman, honest, faithful and brave, a friend kind, loving and true, her people knew her best of all, her name will always be a fragrant memory to them. Appropriate funeral services were held, by Rev. Green, at the family residence in Danville, Ky., after which the remains were laid to rest in the Danville Cemetery, there the large number of friends attending and beautiful and costly floral offerings showed the esteem in which this godly woman was held.

The friends mingle their grief with the bereaved family, and heartily sympathize with them in their great loss, but they have the consolation that the lamented dead is now at rest in the bosom of God. To the mourners one and all let us live that we may meet her in that bright sweet home, where there is no parting, no tears.

"Everybody Should Know" says C. G. Blackberry Jelly.

Use fruit which is just ripe, pick over but do not wash. Put the berries in a thick agateware kettle and set it in a pan of boiling water, covering well so that the berries will steam. When the fruit is soft, mash and hang it in a bag over night. Measure the juice in the morning and for each pint of juice measure out three quarters of a pint of sugar. Boil the juice for twenty minutes, meantime heating the sugar in the oven. Now add the sugar to the juice and when it has dissolved boil up the juice and sugar only once. Pour into glasses and when firm cover with paraffine.

Will Open The Ball.

Hon. Henry Watterson, of Louisville editor of the Courier-Journal, one of the foremost characters in the national life of America, has accepted an invitation to deliver the opening address for the Blue Grass Fair, on Monday, August 12th.

The invitation was extended to Mr. Watterson by Jouett Shouse, secretary of the fair, and was concurred in through letters by Mayor Thomas A. Combs and by President J. Clay Hunt, of the Commercial Club. In response thereto Mr. Watterson has agreed to deliver the address, which will be a prominent feature of the opening day.

A Labor Organization.

Alfred Britton, a Nicholasville negro is organizing in Jessamine county a union of negro laborers, which he calls the United Order of Industry, with which he proposes to handle the wheat crop now ready to harvest. His plan is to enroll all the able bodied negro laborers of the county in the union and then make contracts with the hemp growers to handle their crop. He will charge $4 an acre for cutting hemp and $2 per acre for stacking it. He will put his men to work in gangs of twenty who will cut ten acres a day. The men will receive $1.40 a day, and the overplus will be placed in a fund from which the members of the union can draw when out of work in the winter time.

Are Standing Together.

Recently, it seems that the paths of the Tobacco Trust have not all been strewn with roses as has heretofore been the case. After several years of immunity during which it has practically taken the tobacco crop at its own price, it ran amuck two weeks ago in a suit brought by Uncle Sam to test its authority to continue in business as a Trust, while last week, the Labor Unions, in Convention assembled, voted to "go after" it for cutting the prices of its labor lower than they deem either fair or reasonable. The people apparently have at last realized that turkey for the Trust and crow for the public is not so palatable, as the Trust agents have assured them was the case. All that remains necessary now to get a square deal, is for the tobacco growers themselves to act wisely and stand together, as they are doing, in pooling their crops, and the tobacco growing industry bids to be entering on a great era of prosperity.

A Card.

To the public:

We are no fully installed in our new offices, consisting of four rooms, and are prepared to do better work, and in a more satisfactory manner than heretofore. Our removal was one of great labor, requiring infinite pains and wonderful particularity. Naturally the removal of the switch board and the transfer and connection of hundreds of wires would suggest all this trouble, and it would be inferred that a great many mistakes and misconnections occurred. But there were remarkably few of these. After a very few days, connections were all properly made and the work was moving on smoothly.

We thank our patrons for the patience with which they bore these changes and endured the inconvenience of occasional mis-connection. We promise better service than ever before and thank our patrons for their support and encouragement.

Resolutions of Respect.

Again it becomes our duty to chronicle the death of another President of the Citizens National Bank. Our esteemed President, L. Y. Leavell, departed this life, July 29, 1907, at St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, Ky. He was a patient sufferer at that institution for about six months. Now, therefore, be it Resolved, by the officers and directors, of the Citizens National Bank, of Lancaster, Ky., that in his death the institution has lost a true friend and a wise counselor. The better we knew him the more we respected and loved him. He was a man of few words, but high aspirations. He hated sin and admired everything that was uplifting and ennobling.

Resolved, that we extend our sincere condolence to his relations and friends. Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this bank and published in the Central Record.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the general accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by R E McRoberts Druggist. 50c. 1m

The form for these accounts can be obtained by the road overseers of the county from the county judge or the county attorney.

TOBACCO BREEDING.
Scientific Method of Obtaining Uniformity of Strain.

Visitors to the United States department of agriculture station in Connecticut last season were struck with the marvelous results obtained in breeding for uniformity of strains. The work is to be further carried on. The above illustrates a choice plant with the seed pod bagged. Seed saved under bag in this manner is larger, heavier and less susceptible to disease.

Choice Tobacco Plant.

than when saved in the ordinary manner. The main value of the process is to prevent accidental cross fertilization between poor and good plants through the agency of bees and other insects. Results are so far notable. —New England Homestead.

A FEW TIMELY DON'TS.
What the Farmer Should Remember Not to Do.

Don't throw forks carelessly on the floors of passageways in barns. That is a sort of carelessness that may almost be classed as criminal.

Don't neglect to keep all wheeled vehicles well greased. A wheel that cries out for lubricant is a good many pounds added to the load of your horse.

Don't throw forks carelessly on the and other trimmings and refuse from orchard, garden and truck patch, for thereby you destroy many harmful insects and seeds.

Don't invest any money in gold mines, coffee plantations, copper works and the like, thousands of miles from your home, and managed by men you have never seen. By taking this advice you may possibly miss the opportunity of getting enormously rich, but it is altogether likely that by heeding it you will save money enough to buy that piano your daughter has been wanting or the new buggy you promised your son if he would stick to the farm.

Don't allow any line fence squabble or any family difference to come up to spoil your Thanksgiving feast. It is always a wise rule to think twice before you speak once; and if you will take the precaution to think three times, you are pretty sure to get through life without uttering any harsh words, and that means a serene and sweet existence which is, after all, the only thing worth while.

Don't speak in sharp, peremptory tones to your children. You won't allow the hired man to use such tones to the horses lest it makes them nervous, nor to the cows lest it interfere with their milk production. Your sons and daughters are of more value than many horses, or the cattle upon a thousand hills. —Farm Journal.

Hints for Farmers.
Sod Plowing in the fall will help kill out the white grubs.

Aeration of the soil is one great benefit from plowing.

Haul in a good supply of dry earth for use in the stables.

Have you a good pile of fire wood cut, split and piled where it is dry and handy?

Farming demands a man's best effort. No use to try to work an old scheme and expect success.

Root up the old, unproductive fruit trees and plant in their place young, vigorous trees from the nursery.

If not, attend to it now so the women folks won't have to hunt in the snow some morning for wood to get breakfast.

The Colorado Experiment Station, Fort Collins, Col., has published Bulletin No. 116, entitled, "The cottony maple scale."

"The Fruit-tree Leaf-roller" is the name of Bulletin No. 71, issued by the Missouri Experiment Station, Columbia, Mo. Write there for a copy.

It is the last half-inch that locks the barn door. We can not round up the tip of the year unless we keep stepping till the work is all done.

One agriculturist says that he would rather have four inches of soil well filled with humus and well tilled than 12 inches poorly filled with humus and poorly tilled.

Ready to Believe 'Most Anything.' "Eastern visitors to the west are generally prepared for any phenomenal showing in the line of agriculture, stock raising and the like," says a Colorado man. "But once in awhile they are taken by surprise."

"A New Hampshire man who was spending his vacation on the ranch of a relative in Colorado went out one morning to inspect a large incubator in which the young chicks were hatching. In one corner of the incubator a neglected peach seed, encouraged by the warmth of the atmosphere, had burst, and a tiny sprout several inches long was growing out of it."

"Suffering Caesar!" exclaimed the New Hampshire man, as this caught his eye, "do you hatch out your peach trees in this country?" —Harper's Weekly.

TELL STORY OF CIVILIZATION.

This is Declared to Be the Function of the Museums.

The aim and the methods of art museums as well as other phases of life, have felt the vitalizing touch of that spirit of human sympathy, of recognition of mutual responsibility and wish for human helpfulness, whose rapid growth and onward speed have been one of the marked features of the last quarter-century, says the Craftsman. It has not been so very long since a museum was something quite apart from the daily life of the people, a place in which were kept things beautiful or interesting, whither one might go on an idle half day, as upon a pilgrimage. But now the museums are being humanized, made a beneficent party of everyday life, so organized and related to man's activities that they not only recount a coherent story of his aspirations toward the beautiful in past ages, but also recognize his present efforts to achieve beauty and show him how he may make other ages and other nations give him aid.

And, aside from the advantages on the practical and aesthetic sides of life which are resulting from the new spirit in museum management, there is also an important ethical influence. For, as people realize through museum collections, so brought together and related as to make that realization easy, how the human race has always striven to give expression to its ideas of beauty and has made that expression a part of its daily life, they get a new sense of the universal brotherhood of humanity. And the world advances only as men feel and respond to the urge of that kinship.

"THE SPIRIT OF FLOWERS."
Lavender in a Way Unique Among Pleasant Smelling Plants.

If, as the South Sea Islanders say, scent is the spirit of a flower—which is their reason for covering newly-made graves with flowers—then lavender must rank very high, spiritually, in flower circles, its scent being almost its whole claim to existence, though the grace of its coloring should count for something also. One utters the truism that the smell of lavender is unlike that of any other flower, forgetting more completely than usual that this is true of every flower in the world. Whether legendary or not, the theory that derives the name of lavender from its scent is a very plausible one. The Welsh name for it, as far back as the thirteenth century, was certainly liliant and liliant; so it is easy to believe that this, too, came from the Latin lavare, to wash, and therefore refers to the old Roman custom of putting the flowers in their baths for the sake of their fragrance. That laundry and lavender should have a common origin is more poetic than it may sound.

Girls Are So Queer.
"No, I never did like him. Why, when he used to write me glowing love letters I would only glance over them once."

"Only once, dear?"
"Well — er — sometimes when I couldn't make out his abominable scrawl I would glance over them the second time."

"Indeed! And that was all?"
"Except sometimes at night I would take them from under my pillow and read them just to kill time."

"And that was the end?"
"Yes, only on rainy days I used to look over them again just to see how silly a man can be when he starts writing love letters. But I only glanced over them, dear. I never did like him."

The Louisville Herald to Award $10,000 in Prizes

Monday, July 1, The Louisville Daily Sunday, July 1, The Louisville Herald, a leading contest, in which $10,000 in prizes will be awarded the women of Kentucky and Indiana. The plan, adopted for awarding these prizes is the fairest conceivable, and no "cheating" or "guessing" enters into the plan. The contest is to be conducted on legitimate competitive lines, and every woman who enters the race will have an equal opportunity to win a first prize, whether she resides in Louisville or a town of much smaller size.

The Prizes.
The prizes offered by The Herald are the most liberal ever given away by any newspaper in the South. The capital prize of the $10,000 contest is $1,500 in cash. This large amount of money will be given to the woman who secures the largest number of votes in the entire contest, regardless of district limitations. As the contest runs but nine weeks, the winner of this prize will earn $166.66 per week for nine weeks.

Besides the capital prize there are two other grand prizes, consisting of two 1907 model automobiles. One of these machines is a brand new Aerocar, purchased direct from the factory for the express purpose of awarding it as a prize in The Herald's contest. The other automobile is a runabout model, valued at $500, brand new, with every modern improvement, backed by the manufacturers and the local agent. One of these machines will be awarded to a candidate in Louisville, the other to a candidate residing in Kentucky or Indiana, outside of Louisville. The candidate who secures the largest number of votes of the two districts from the twenty-five counties will then be awarded to the candidate in each one of the twenty-five districts who secures the greatest number of votes in her own particular district. The number of votes accorded candidates in one district will be bearing whatsoever upon the number of votes accorded candidates in other districts. This equalizes the competition and gives every one who enters the race an opportunity to win.

How to Enter the Race.
All that is necessary to enter The Herald's contest is to send your name and address to the manager of the Contest Department, together with the names of one or two reliable friends who live in the vicinity. Another way to enter the race is by clipping out a few coupons, the faces of fifteen and fifty cents, and sending them to the Contest Department, together with your name and address to the Louisville, Ky.

Every Woman Eligible.
Every woman who desires to compete in this contest, who is a respectable white resident of Indiana or Kentucky, and between the ages of fifteen and fifty years, send in your name at once if you desire to compete in the race, and your coupons over a period of nine weeks—July 1 to August 31, inclusive.

How to Get Votes.
Votes may be secured in The Herald's contest by clipping the coupons from the daily paper, and sending them to the Contest Department, or by securing subscriptions for the daily, Sunday and weekly Herald, and having such subscriptions paid for in advance. A new year's subscription counts for 24 coupons, and so on. Full information on this point may be secured by sending The Herald or writing the Contest Department for particulars.

Enter Now.
If you are eligible enter this contest at once. You may win the capital prize of $1,500 in cash, or a brand new $2,000 automobile. If you are not eligible enter the name of your wife, mother, sister, friend, or sweetheart, as the case may be, and help her win a prize. It will cost you nothing to nominate a candidate, and you will get a chance to win a prize for one of the prizes. Now is the time to get her name in the contest. You may never have another opportunity to get such valuable prizes for so little effort. Enter the race before some one else in your locality gets all the votes you are depending on, as the case may be, simply send your name and address to the Contest Department of The Herald, Louisville, Ky., and you will receive full information upon every point of the race by return mail.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.
Peter Frey, of Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with best physicians in Waynesburg, and getting worse, the doctors advised me I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well."
